BOY KILLED ACCIDENTLY

Joseph Morgan Nine-Year-Old
Son of Mr. N. P. Morgan Shot by Companion.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LYNCHBURG, VA., Feb. 9.—Joseph Morgan, the nine-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Morgan, was accident-ally shot and killed Sunday afternoon by five-year-old Warren Stinnett, who lives with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Overstreet, in Rivermont.

Frank and Joseph Morgan, Bussey Overstreet and Warren Stinnett, accompanied by Mr. S. T. Richardson, went a short distance from their homes in a small body of woods to look at a little play-house which the boys had been build-ing. While the boys and Mr. Richardson were working on the toy house, Warren Stinnett was delegated to hold a small rifle which the party had been carrying. Mr. Richardson cautioned him not to fool with the trigger. The little fellow, however, seems to have forgotten the caution, for a short while afterwards the gun was discharged. The ball took effect in Joseph Morgan's left side, penetrating the heart and causing almost instant death.

A charter was granted here to-day, incorporating the D. Moses & Co., dry goods and notions dealers. The cap-ital stock is to be not less than thirty thousand dollars and not more than fifty thousand dollars. The officers for the first year are D. Moses, president; J. B. Gutman, secretary; and those,

BURGLARY AT MANASSAS

Town Agitated Over Expediency of Es-tablishing a Dispensary.
MANASSAS, VA., Feb. 9.—The dry goods and clothing store of Hynson & Co., of this place, was entered by bur-glars early Sunday morning and a suit of clothes, a sweater and a pair of shoes were stolen. The shoes, which proved not to be mates, were found by some boys in a hole of water just outside of town.

The store was entered through a front window, and to effect an entrance a pane of glass was broken.

There are several very live questions agitating the town of Manassas just at this time. The most important ones are "Shall the corporate limits be ex-tended?" "Shall the town be bonded for $10,000 for street improvements?" and "Shall the town have a dispensary?"

Rev. C. W. Trainham, pastor of the Manassas Baptist Church, preached a strong sermon last night against the dispensary system. Mr. Trainham thinks should the sale of liquor be placed in the hands of the corporation, that the Christian people of town would not only be endorsing the liquor traffic, but they would actually be engaged in the sale of liquor.
